Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“On Monday evening, May 5, 2003, 30-year-old Che-Hyun Song, her 2-year-old son Nathan Hyun-Woo Song, and 56-year-old babysitter Grace Eun-Sik Min were found shot to death in the bathroom of Mrs. Song’s 4th floor apartment in the Renaissance Apartment Complex located at 630 S. Masselin Ave. in the Miracle Mile area.

“Friends describe Mrs. Song as a very beautiful person: Honest, warm hearted, and a down to earth individual who will be missed by all. A staunch believer, Mrs. Song attended Berendo Street Baptist Church where she played the flute in the church orchestra. Mrs. Song and her son are survived by her husband, Byung C. Song, and 6-year-old son, Tad Jin-Woo Song.

“A recent born-again Christian who attended Glendale United Methodist Church, Mrs. Min took on her Christian name of Grace. Her enthusiasm for her new found spirituality led to her becoming Deacon in charge of welcoming new members in a short period of time. She was well known for her service to her church, community and missionary work. She is survived by her daughter, Kris Won Kim, who is now a PhD. candidate at UCLA.

“Although several people have been questioned and/or detained by police for this triple homicide, police have not yet been able to find a motive or suspect(s).

“The Wilshire Division of the Los Angeles Police Department is seeking information, and would like the public to come forward with any information which may aid in obtaining justice for Mrs. Song, her son, Mrs. Min and their families.”
